Kelly Blaser Memorial Award Goes to Three at NE College

Three outstanding students at Northeast Technical Community College in Norfolk have received the first Kelly Blaser Memorial Award of Excellence in Architectural Drafting The presentations, made at the Drafting Club banquet at Becker's Steakhouse, went to Scott Caauwe, Judy Dalman and Ron Volk, all of Norfolk

The memorial award was established this year by the Drafting Club at the college in memory of NTCC architectural drafting student, the late Kelly Blaser, daughter of Mr and Mrs Paul Blaser, Norfolk Her father, real estate instructor at the college, presented the individual awards

The awards are presented to students whose original house plans are selected by judges for construction by building construction students at the college The honorees' names will be placed on a permanent plaque at the college

Thirteen students participated in the competition Each drew plans from a given set of specifications and from these, six were selected gy Drafting Instructors Harry Lindner and Gary Parker, together with NTCC building faculty members These six plans were then presented to a panel of judges

Serving as judges were Mike Frank, NTCC building construction instructor Chuck Miller, NTCC cluster manager, Cletus Becker, a manager with Bestt Decorators Inc , Betty Paulson, realtor with Gateway Realty, Don Klinetobe, residential contractor, and Jody Alber homemaker

Unicam Resolution Asks Study of Gambling Laws

LINCOLN, Neb (AP) — A resolution calling for a study of the state's gambling laws was introduced in the Legislature Tuesday

Senators also offered resolutions calling for studies of hazardous waste generation and disposal in the state, as well as old fish and game laws and a general disaster plan

Sen John DeCamp of Neligh offered LR152 to study gambling laws

A number of rural senators offered LR156, calling for the Legislature to study hazardous waste generation or disposal and investigate dumping sites that contain toxic waste

Sen William Brennan of Omaha offered LR159, calling for a Public Health and Welfare Committee study of infant mortality, and creation of a Citizens Advisory Task Force to assist

Other resolutions introduced

—LR149, sponsored by the Government Committee, to study public sentiment on a disaster plan adopted in 1978

—LR150, sponsored by the Constitutional Revision and Recreation Committee to study game and fish laws and develop recommendations for updating

—LR151, sponsored by the Banking Committee to study current revisions of the federal bankruptcy laws to determine their effect on the state

—LR153, sponsored by the Banking Committee to study the industrial loan and investment industry and regulatory statutes in Nebraska

—LB155, sponsored by Sen Ernest Chambers of Omaha to study the roles of county sheriffs in correctional activities, and review salary levels of sheriffs and reimbursements for feeding and boarding prisoners

—LR157, sponsored by Sen. Steve Fowler of Lincoln, asking the Judiciary Committee to examine migratory workers and analyze their needs for legal services

—LR158, sponsored by Fowler, asking the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee to study the potential for Community Antenna Television in Nebraska
